Foreword

This unusual offering to the public of the "Original" Celebrated Grinnell Collection of United States Paper Currency warrants a few apropos remarks regarding the extent of Mr. Grinnell's endeavor to form what is generally regarded as the most complete series of our National Paper Curreney ever to be brought together into one vast collection.

While he was an ardent student of Numismatics for a great number of years, his preference for United States coinage was notable and it was his partieular desire to complete if possible the Paper Money Series for the Colleetion. Seeking to aecomplish this almost impossible task led to an intensified effort on his part in the last two deeades, during whieh period he spared neither time nor expense to realize his lifetime ambition.

How well he sueeeeded can be gleaned from the faet that with a few exeeptions, the entire series is now eomplete and the Colleetion is unsurpassed. No other Colleetion of notes, so complete, exists and it is highly improbable that a similar colleetion will ever again be offered at Publie Auetion or Private Sale.

It is diffieult to coneeive the magnitude of this magnificent Collection, therefore, it would be futile to attempt to enumerate the many rare and desirable speeimens eontained therein in any prefaee. However, it will suffiee to add that this presents perhaps the only opportunity to seeure specimens of notes which heretofore were regarded impossible to acquire.

This eatalogue will comprise only the first section of Mr. Grinnell's vast Collection. In it we shall endeavor to furnish valuable historical information pertaining to each series of the various issues so the Catalogue may be a fitting testimonial to Mr. Albert A. Grinnell for his truly monumental efforts and a lasting contribution to Numismatics. We smeerely hope everyone who reeeives this Catalogue will appreciate its potential value as a permanent reeord of the finest Collection of this kind ever sold at Publie Auction.

The aequisition of any speeimen from this superb collection should afford a great deal of satisfaction to its new owner for many of the notes are "unique" and hitherto unobtainable at any priee. Therefore, we urge that you read the terms of the Sale carefully then check all items which may be of interest, and prepare your bids at onee for this is a matter of "priority" which is most important.

We invite your liberal patronage for this great sale with the assurance that all eommissions will be executed most faithfully.

Numismatieally yours,

BARNEY BLUESTONE.

A GREAT NUMISMATIST

Mere words alone would be futile to adequately describe the great character of Albert A. Grinnell, whose world famous Collection of United States Paper Currency is herein being offered for sale at public auction in accordance with his express desire, "That others who may have a kindred interest share in each case the great pleasure which the acquiring of each of them has given to me." This is typical of Mr. Grinnell who has always been most liberal minded in all transactions.

His prominence as a Numismatist is attested by the fact that he is loved and admired by hundreds of the Collecting Fraternity. His deep interest in this subject is nationally known for he has always been active in the affairs of the American Numismatic Association of which he is Life Member No. 20. For many years he attended the A.N.A. Conventions where his exhibits have always been of outstanding interest.

He was a founder of the Detroit Coin Club and served as its second president. At the 400th meeting of that Club in 1941, he was presented with a large gold medal bearing his likeness, in recognition of his meritorious contribution to numismatic science. Similar recognition was bestowed upon him by the Odd Fellows Lodge at Oakfield, N. Y. for fifty years of active membership. His Masonic Lodge in Batavia, N. Y., bestowed upon him the same honor for a half century of splendid service.

Although he has been established in Detroit for the past thirty-four years, his early life was spent in New York State. Mr. Grinnell is a native New Yorker, having been born June 12, 1865, in the town of Shelby, Orleans County, where his father conducted a general store. It was here at the tender age of eleven that he manifested his first interest in numismatics. At the close of each day his father would empty the contents of the till, and usually young Albert showed keen interest in any shiny new coins which he saw among the day's receipts. No doubt many of these he acquired for his collection.

After his early training at home, he later completed his education at the Rochester Business College graduating with high honors. With his sheepskin tucked under his arm, young Grinnell departed to launch upon his business career. However, he paused long enough to be married to his boyhood sweetheart, Miss Helen A. Avery, in 1888. She was thereafter his constant companion and inspired him to success until her untimely demise in 1931.

His first business venture was the establishment of the Grinnell Retail Coal and Lumber Yard at Oakfield, N. Y. His genial disposition coupled with fair dealing was soon reflected in the success of this enterprise and it was not long before he branched out into other fields. Several years later, Mr. Grinnell had developed a successful business by building the large grain elevators and warehouses for the handling of farm products. After many years of handling this great enterprise, he finally moved to Detroit in 1910 to become affiliated with Grinnell Brothers Music House. Later when the company was incorporated, he became Vice-President and afterward President, which office he held until retirement.

Devoting many years of his life to the accomplishment of acquiring the finest and most complete collection of U. S. Paper Currency as Mr. Grinnell did, sparing neither time nor expense in obtaining the finest specimens only, has made this offering possible. This commendable undertaking at its successful culmination can be best realized after a careful study of the contents of this catalogue.

The privilege of cataloguing a collection of such vast importance is indeed a rare pleasure and I feel singularly honored in being selected by Mr. Grinnell to disperse this marvelous collection in a fitting manner so that all interested may be properly served.

Numismatically yours,

BARNEY BLUESTONE.

UNITED STATES PAPER CURRENCY

The largest and most complete collection of United States paper currency ever offered at public auction. Including some of the greatest rarities, many of which are unique and in a number of instances but one other of its type being known. Many of these early notes are excessively rare in any condition, but in superb state of preservation such as are the specimens herein offered, it is doubtful if a similar opportunity will even again present itself.

THE VERY RARE DEMAND NOTES

These are the very first notes issued by the Government by authority of Congress under the act of July 17, 1861 and act of August 5, 1861, all of which bear the date August 10, 1861 issued in the following denominations, $5.00, $10.00, and $20.00.

The notes were payable "on demand" by the assistant treasurer at New York, and at the Sub-Treasuries in Philadelphia, Boston, Cincinnati and St. Louis. The notes were signed by employees of the Government with their own names "for the Register" and "for the Treasurer." These, are the only notes which do not bear the "seal" of the United States Treasury. This series represents the rarest notes issued, as most of them were redeemed.

1 $5.00 New York, Portrait, Alexander Hamilton (right); large 5 (center); Crawford's statue "America" (left); signatures, MacLeod and Hartnick. Unc. In this particular condition this note is excessively rare. ($75.00)

2 $10.00 New York, Portrait, Abraham Lincoln (left); art (right); American eagle and shield (center); signatures, Hubbard and Evans. "For the" written, not printed in plate. Ex. fine. Another rarity and in this condition extremely rare. ($120.00)

3 $20.00 New York, Vignette, Liberty and Capitol, with large "20" repeated on either side; signatures, Weller and Colne; Ex. fine. This is the rarest denomination, and in this condition excessively rare. ($525.00)

4 $5.00 Philadelphia, Portrait, Alexander Hamilton (right); large 5 (center); "America" (left); signatures, Camdwell and Somerman. Ex. fine. Another desirable note in very unusual condition. ($50.00)

5 $10.00 Philadelphia, Portrait, Abraham Lincoln (left); art (right); eagle and shield (center); signatures, Lee and Tingle. Strictly V. fine. A beautiful specimen, unusual, as nearly all were circulated. ($90.00)

6 $20.00 Philadelphia, Vignette, Liberty and Capitol, with large "20" repeated on either side; signatures, Hubbard and Tingle. About Ex. fine. A great rarity which required many years of search to acquire in this splendid condition. ($575.00)

7 $5.00 Boston, Portrait, Alexander Hamilton etc.; signatures, Ames and Butler. Ex. fine. A really choice specimen of this rare "Demand Note." ($65.00)

8 $10.00 Boston, Portrait, Abraham Lincoln etc.; signatures, Ames and Lilley. A beautiful specimen of the "Boston" type extremely difficult to duplicate. Extra fine. ($110.00)

9 $20.00 Boston, Vignette, Liberty etc.; signatures Daily and Meline. This extreme rarity has a few spots reinforced on the back, slight splits, but note complete. Fine. ($350.00)

10 $5.00 "Cincinnati," Portrait, Alexander Hamilton etc.; signatures, Hubbard and Whelpley. A long tear has been cleverly repaired, but this does not mar the appearance of this note, as it is comparable in rarity to the 1793 "Strawberry Sprig" Cent. About V. Good. ($60.00)

11 $10.00 "Cincinnati," Portrait, Abraham Lincoln etc.; signatures, Kennard and Fry. "For the" written by hand, not printed. Strictly V. Fine. Unusually nice condition for this great rarity. ($350.00)

12 $20.00 "Cincinnati," Vignette, Liberty etc.; signatures, Tallman and Fry. This is the rarest $20.00 Demand Note and it is highly improbable that another specimen exists. Aside from a few mends on the right end, this note is still a most desirable item because of its great rarity. Fine. ($750.00)

13 $5.00 "St. Louis," Portrait, Alexander Hamilton etc.; signatures, Starr and Knight. "The St. Louis" are the rarest of all the Demand notes, and this superb example is perhaps the finest known. Ex. Fine. Excessively rare. ($200.00)

14 $10.00 "St. Louis," Portrait, Abraham Lincoln etc.; signatures, S. E. Benne (?) and W. F. Turner. This was regarded as the rarest Demand Note in Mr. Grinnell's collection. The condition of this note is really fine when considered in the light of its great rarity. Slightly frayed upper edge, minute piece missing upper right corner, mended. Fine. ($275.00)

LEGAL TENDER NOTES (First Issue)

This lathe work particularly on the ciphers, is responsible for the sobriquet, "Watermelon" back. Rare indeed. Seldom seen in such remarkable state of preservation. Superb. Crisp. Unc. ($225.00)

222 $100.00—1891, Portrait, Farragut. Small red seal (scallops). Sig. Rosecrans and Nebeker. Plate (C) 1. Back plate 1. Rev. design open type, small numerals in lozenges. The only $100.00 coin note issued in 1891. So rare that it is not listed in Mr. Blake's book. Of the few specimens known this is the finest Mr. Grinnell could find. About extremely fine. ($190.00)

The following three items, comprising the $1000.00 denomination notes completes the Treasury or Coin Notes Series of this remarkable collection. There were only three sets of signatures used and a specimen of each is listed below. The latest Treasury reports show 28 outstanding (including these three) and no doubt some have been redeemed since, or destroyed. The few remaining are RARE beyond description, seldom seen in any condition.

223 $1000.00—1890. Portrait, General Meade. Large brown seal (spikes). Sig. Rosecrans and Huston. Plate (B) 1. Reverse, Watermelon design. Few nicks or slightly frayed at upper edge, but still a decent specimen of an excessively rare note. About fine. ($1275.00)

224 $1000.00—1890. Portrait, General Meade. Small red seal (scallops). Sig. Rosecrans and Nebeker. Plate (B) 3. With the attractive Watermelon back. It is doubtful whether an equal specimen exists for this is truly a beautiful note. Sharp clear impression with the only defects visible under a strong glass, two tiny pin holes where the note had been secured at some time. These do not mar the appearance, however, and any collector would be proud to own it. Pract. Unc. ($1350.00)

225 $1000.00—1891. Portrait, General Meade. Small red seal (scallops). Sig. Tillman and Morgan. Plate (D) 1. Rev. Plate 1. This has the open design on reserve with the small numerals 1000 in lozenges and M's also in lozenges. Rare signature combination. This is the only specimen bearing the signatures of Tillman and Morgan known to exist. Not only is this note unique, but it is also a perfect specimen which should furnish a thrill for the most discriminating collector. There was only one type $1000.00 denomination note issued in 1891 and this one is a gem of the first water. The only surviving note and the potential buyer will experience a warm glow of pride upon acquiring this distinctive item. Superb. Crisp. Unc. ($1425.00)

INTEREST BEARING NOTES

The interest-bearing notes are larger in size than other issues. The difference being notable in the width of the notes and some are longer due to attached coupons, etc. These notes were issues during the very trying times of the last years of the civil war, when the public debt had assumed enormous proportions and money was very difficult to obtain. There were three different issues all of which bear interest, varying from one to three years payable to order.

ONE YEAR NOTES

Act of Congress, Mar. 3, 1863. Interest at 5% payable on redemption.

226 $10.00 (May 30, 1864). Portrait, Salmon P. Chase, left. Peace holding sheaf of wheat, right. Eagle holding flag, center. Sig. Chittenden and Spinner. Small red seal (rays). Excessively rare. Most of these notes circulated as a medium of exchange and all show evidence of handling. Mr. Grinnell states that he has never seen a specimen which did not show signs of circulation. This is a nice note and can be classed as very fine indeed. ($100.00)

227 $20.00 (Feb. 5, 1864). Portrait, Lincoln (bearded), right. Figure of Victory, left. Mortar firing, center. Small red seal. Sig. Chittenden and Spinner. Plate (B). The actual redemption value $21.00. This specimen is in a remarkable state of preservation and considered one of the finest known examples. A most desirable and extremely rare note. Ex. fine. ($200.00)

228 $50.00 (April 14, 1864). Portrait, Alexander Hamilton, right. Figure of Loyalty, left. Sig. Chittenden and Spinner. Plate (D) 2. Small red seal. This is no doubt the rarest denomination of the one year interest-bearing notes. Mr. Grinnell has had this specimen for many years and was unable to secure a better one. The collector who acquires this item can consider himself very fortunate for few of these exist (Redemption value $52.50). Reinforced and patched in several places, otherwise strictly good. ($125.00)

TWO YEAR NOTE

229 $50.00 (April 13, 1864). Three emblematic figures. Justice, center. Loyalty, left and caduceus, right. Small red seal. Sig. Chittenden and Spinner. Plate (B). The two years notes are exceedingly rare, in fact this is the only one Mr. Grinnell was ever able to obtain. This specimen is really very fine, strictly so, except for a slit at the right top which has been skillfully brought together and is hardly noticeable to the naked eye. Redemption value $55.00. Very fine. ($375.00)

THREE YEAR NOTES

There were only five denominations all of which were payable to order, with space provided on the back for the indorsement of payee. They had five coupons, each being for six months interest. The last six month's interest payable with the note. The rate of interest authorized was .07 3/10 per cent, the interest on the $50.00 note amounting to one per cent per day and each coupon calling for payment of $1.82½. The plates and printing were done by the American Bank Note Company, three notes being engraved on a plate.

Act of June 30, 1864

230 $50.00 (August 15, 1864). Large American eagle, center. Small red seal. Sig. Colby and Spinner. Plate (A). This note is without coupons, the last six month's interest being due with the note redemption value $51.82. This has the clause on the back, "Convertible at the option of the holder into bonds" etc. This is the only 3 year note of this date Mr. Grinnell ever had. Excessively rare and seldom offered in any condition. Very fine. ($300.00.)

Act of March 3, 1865

231 $50.00 (July 15, 1865). Large American eagle, center. Small red seal. Sig. Colby and Spinner. This is similar to the last lot, but at the left side vertically printed in red "The Government reserves the right of paying in coin the interest on this note at the rate of six per cent per annum. Plate (C). On the rev. appears the overprint in gold "50" in large figures. Where these gold figures are printed the paper has disintegrated in spots but the note as a whole is a desirable specimen. Exceedingly rare. Very fine. ($300.00)

232 $50.00 (July 15, 1865). Large American eagle, center. Sig. Colby and Spinner. Small red seal. Plate (A). The same type as the last but in this instance, all the coupons are intact attached to the note, as originally issued. A most unusual show-piece and the only known specimen of this denomination, in existence. A rare and beautiful specimen in remarkable state of preservation. Truly one of the highlights of the entire collection. A gem which will be worth any figure it will bring regardless of how high. About Ex. fine. ($400.00)

COMPOUND INTEREST NOTES

These notes were issued during difficult period toward the close of the war between the states. They were issued to run for three years with interest at 6% compounded semi-annually. The reverse of each note is printed in green with a table showing its value every six months up to maturity. (Size 3½ x 7½ inches). Across the face is printed in large gold letters "Compound Interest Treasury Note" with the denomination also in gold.

234 $10.00 (Aug. 15, 1864). Portrait, Salmon P. Chase, left. Eagle holding flag, center. Peace holding sheaf of wheat, right. Small red seal. Plate (A). Sig. Colby and Spinner. All of the compound interest notes are very rare as nearly all were redeemed. This particular specimen is accompanied by a letter from a former vice president, Charles Curtis, who was once the owner of this very note. In the letter Mr. Curtis relates that he carried the note with him on his campaign. He also states that he bought it because he had never seen one like it. This is of rare historical value as well as a choice specimen of the limited number of this issue still remaining. About Ex. fine. ($100.00)

235 $20.00 (Aug. 15, 1864). Portrait, Abraham Lincoln, right. Victory, left. Mortar firing, lower center. Small red seal. Plate (A). Sig. Colby and Spinner. This is far more rare than the $10.00 denomination and this note is in beautiful condition and one of the finest known. Mr. Grinnell states that it simply can not be had any better. (Redemption value $23.88). Pract. Unc. ($165.00)

236 $50.00 (Aug. 15, 1864). Portrait, Alexander Hamilton, lower right. Vignette "50" above. Loyalty, left. Small red seal. Sig. Colby and Spinner. Plate (C). Here is another note so rare that few are ever seen in any condition. This is the only one Mr. Grinnell was able to find in all his years of collecting. It is really a very fine specimen with just a few spots where the gold letters have disintegrated the paper. Excessively rare and should bring a large price. Very fine. ($285.00)

Act of June 30, 1864

237 $10.00 (July 15, 1864). Portrait, Salmon P. Chase, left. Eagle holding flag, center. Peace holding wheat, right. Small red seal. Sig. Chittenden and Spinner. Plate (D). This is the rarest combination of signatures on the $10.00 denomination. This is a splendid specimen and worthy of a place in the finest collection. We doubt whether a better one can be had. About Ex. fine. ($100.00)

238 $20.00 (July 15, 1864). Portrait, Lincoln, right. Victory seated left. Mortar firing, center. Small red seal. Sig. Chittenden and Spinner. Plate (D) 1. Another rare denomination and with the rare signatures. This specimen is remarkably well preserved and no doubt there will be lively bidding to determine who shall be the proud new owner of this rare and choice specimen. Ex. fine. ($210.00)

REFUNDING NOTES

Act of Congress, Feb. 26, 1879. Dated April 1, 1879.

Denomination issued $10.00.

By the terms of the above act the Secretary of the Treasury was authorized to issue, in exchange for lawful money, certificates of deposit to bear interest at 4% per annum and convertible at any time into 4% bonds. The money so received was to be applied only to the payment of bonds bearing interest of not less than 5% (percent).

239 $10.00 (April 1, 1879). Portrait, Benjamin Franklin, left. Large 10 in vignette, right. Small red seal (scallops). Sig. Gilfillan and Scofield. Plate (D). Blued paper through center of note vertically. A desirable item of historical and numismatic interest. Redemption value $21.30. Superb. Unc. ($100.00)

240 $10.00 (April 1, 1879). Portrait, Franklin. Same as last. This note was added to the collection because of its attractive Serial No. A500. The blue color in the center is very light, but the silk fibres are well pronounced. Nice clean specimen. Strictly very fine. ($75.00

LEGAL TENDER NOTES

CUT SHEETS CONSISTING OF FOUR NOTES PER LOT

(Consecutive serial numbers)

This is absolutely the largest and finest lot of severed sheets ever brought together and to be offered for sale at any time. Early issues of several sheets are particularly rare, for the notes were printed from plates of four impressions to the sheet. The sheets were stacked up in piles of perhaps 100 sheets. Then the seals and the red serial numbers were printed on after which the piles were severed into four stacks of single notes. Thus it can be readily seen that each stack of individual notes would be numbered four numbers apart. To rearrange the original sheets in their proper numerical sequence was a most difficult task indeed. We trust the potential buyer will appreciate this tremendous labor of love which makes available these marvelous sets of crisp specimens. The balance of the sale will consist of cut sheets, reconstructed sheets and uncut sheets. Also many so-called "freaks" or error notes. A number of these are unique and most of which have never been offered at auction before. In order to avoid a repetition of detailed descriptions for each series and denominations of the following lots, since they have already been described in previous listing, in the individual notes of the various series and dates we shall merely mention the denominations, dates, signatures and any other important characteristics which may occur such as very low and attractive serial numbers, etc.

AUTOGRAPHED NOTES

The following collection of autographed notes, many of which are unique, contains perhaps the most cherished items of Mr. Grinnell's marvelous collection. To the layman or the advanced collector, this portion of the catalogue will furnish the thrill of a lifetime for the very existence of many of these specimens has not been generally known. When Mr. Grinnell decided to dispose of his beloved collection, he stipulated that the disposal be conducted in such a manner that the great pleasure which the acquiring of each specimen had given to him, shall be given again in each case to some inheritor of his own tastes. Thus, in compliance with his request these notes, which were considered the joy of his life, will in turn bring great joy to those who shall participate in this sale.

348 $10.00—1862 (Legal Tender). Autographed by Chittenden and Spinner. This is the piece-de-resistance of this grouping. The only known specimen with the pen signatures of Chittenden and Spinner. An interesting incident regarding the actual signing of the note is explained in the accompanying letter from Mr. Spinner, a rather lengthy document written in his well known bold hand. It is apparent from the letter that this note was delivered together with others to Dwight Bannister, a Major serving as Chief Paymaster of the Department of the South, in the summer of 1863. This note was among a package of bills and was found by Major Bannister to lack the signatures of the Treasurer and the Register. He wrote to Mr. Spinner inclosing the note and requested that he sign it and also to get Mr. Chittenden to affix his signature. The original letter from Mr. Spinner and the envelope stamped "Washington, Aug. 19, 1863" are included in this lot together with the original letters from Major Bannister and another from S. C. Newton, dated Nov. 11, 1865, at Cincinnati, who secured this Legal Tender note from Major Bannister after it was returned signed as per his request. In addition there is an interesting added note to Major Bannister at the bottom of Mr. Spinner's letter. This last is in a feminine hand and assures the Major that she is "looking after his interests" to insure there would be plenty of money to pay the troops. The above documents accompany the note to definitely establish its authenticity. Also this note bears a very low serial No. 156. This is undoubtedly one of the most interesting specimens of our National Currency and is a priceless historical item as are the letters accompanying it. Very fine. ($250.00)

349 Autographed letter and $1.00—1862 (Legal Tender). Note with portrait of Salmon P. Chase. First Greenback. Unc. This is a most desirable item consisting of an autographed letter signed by Salmon P. Chase, Secretary of the Treasury during President Lincoln's administration. While Mr. Chase was a great statesman, he is probably best known to Numismatists for his causing the motto "In God We Trust" to be adopted for our national coinage, etc. ($15.00)

350 $1.00—1862 (Legal Tender). Sig. Chittenden and Spinner. Serial No. 1881. This note bears the additional pen signature of A. U. Wyman, Treasurer, 1876-7, 1883-1885. All of this is written vertically above the printed signatures. Mr. Wyman was Treasurer of the United States on two occasions. This is a choice autographed specimen. Crisp. Unc. ($8.00)

351 $1.00—1869 (Legal Tender). Sig. Allison and Spinner. Another note with the added autograph A. U. Wyman, Treas. U. S. 1876, 1883. A desirable item for the autograph collector as well as the Numismatist. Pract. Unc. ($12.00)

358 $1.00—1880 (Legal Tender). Sig. Rosecrans and Huston. Large brown seal (spikes). With the pen autograph J. N. Huston, Treasurer U. S. 1889-91 written horizontally at the left center. The notes signed by Rosecrans and Huston are rare as they were in office together less than two years, but with the autograph of Huston makes this item much more valuable. Strictly very fine. ($35.00)

359 $2.00—1880 (Legal Tender). Sig. Rosecrans and Huston. Large red seal (spikes). This note brings above catalogue value for the regular issue, but this specimen has the additional autograph of J. N. Huston, Treasurer U. S. 1889-1891 written horizontally just above the Sig. of the Register. A rare and beautiful note. Crisp. Unc. ($55.00)

360 $1.00—1890 (Coin Note). Sig. Rosecrans and Huston. Plate (B) 1. Serial No. 122. This bears the autograph J. N. Huston, Treasurer U. S. 1889-1891, written just above the name of the Register. Mr. Thompson was Treasurer of the United States for only four months and nine days, thus very few notes bear his signature. Cat. $35.00 for the regular issue, but this is particularly rare with the additional signature written by Mr. Thompson. Beautiful bluish tinted paper and perfect sharp imprint. Crisp., Unc. ($55.00)

378 $5.00—1862 (Legal Tender). Sig. Chittenden and Spinner. Plate (A). This note has the autograph John Burke written between the printed signatures. Mr. Burke was treasurer from 1913 to 1921. An extremely scarce item. Crisp. Unc. ($17.00)

UNUSUAL COLLECTION OF ERROR OR FREAK NOTES

All of the following are Legal Tender Notes except Lot 392 which is a Coin or Treasury Note. There is an increased demand for this type and they are becoming more popular than freak coins. The fact that these errors exist indicates that they do slip through despite rigid inspection. However, more of them are detected by inspectors than get through. Therefore the few discovered by the alert collctor are highly prized and seldom offered for sale. These items will have a tendency to increase rather than decrease in value.

384 $1.00—1917. Sig. Speelman and White. This note has the reverse inverted. No doubt this was the result of the sheet becoming reversed after the obverse impression, so that the back plate was printed inverted. Perfect. Crisp. Unc. ($5.00)

385 $1.00—1917. Sig. Elliot and Burke. Reverse inverted. Another desirable specimen of a rare error. Ex. fine. ($4.00)

386 $1.00—1917. Cut sheet of four notes. Sig. Elliot and Burke. This is a set of an entire sheet which was printed with inverted back. These are extremely rare. The only complete sheet that Mr. Grinnell was ever able to obtain. Superb. Crisp. Unc. ($25.00)

387 $2.00—1917. Sig. Teehee and Burke. Another inverted back. Beautiful note. Crisp. Unc. ($8.00)

388 $2.00—1917. Sig. Elliott and Burke. Inverted back. All of this denomination are rare. Strictly very fine. ($7.00)

389 $2.00—1917. Sig. Speelman and White. Inverted back. Another rare item. Very fine. ($7.00)

390 $5.00—1907. Sig. Speelman and White. With inverted back. A difficult denomination to obtain. Strictly fine. ($12.00)

391 $10.00—1901. Sig. Speelman and White. The popular Buffalo Note, with inverted back. Since the higher denomination are subject to more rigid inspection, errors are much more rare. About Ex. fine. ($25.00)

392 $1.00—1890 (Coin Note). Sig. Rosecrans and Nebeker. Inverted back. To find an error on a coin note is indeed a rarity. This is the only one that Mr. Grinnell was able to acquire of this entire series. Rare and really a very good specimen. ($8.00)

393 $1.00—1862. Sig. Chittenden and Spinner. This is an unusual error in the serial numbers. Upper right, 40857 and lower left 40853. There is not another known. Occurring on the first issue it is particularly desirable and this is a perfect, crisp specimen. Unique. Unc. ($100.00)

394 $1.00—1917. Sig. Speelman and White. Another startling error. Two different serial numbers, lower left, R22514791A, Upper right, R22514793A. Only one other known of this type and it cost the owner over $100.00 several years ago. Beautiful condition. Pract. Unc. ($80.00)

395 $10.00—1878. Sig. Allison and Gilfillan. This is a rather unusual note. The lower left corner of this specimen has an odd shaped piece attached and turned over the obverse side, a portion of this received the imprint of the plate. It is a wonder this passed the inspectors. Crisp. Unc. ($8.00)

396 $1.00—1917. Sig. Teehee and Burke. This note shows a comet-like white spike about half way across the back where a clipping of paper evidently laid across the plate and left this portion of the imprint blank. Nice oddity. Pract. Unc. ($5.00)

397 $1.00—1917. Sig. Teehee and Burke. This note has a white strip across the left end on obverse (fold in paper) but the amazing part is that the back shows a perfect imprint. No doubt the sheet was pressed out flat before the back plate was impressed. Very fine. ($4.00)

398 $1.00—1917. Sig. Same as last. Another freak, the lower left Serial No. is clearly printed D74661838A, but the right hand Serial No. shows only D 3A although the impression of the numerals show plainly. Perhaps a scrap of paper got in the numbering machine and covered the type. Unc. ($5.00)

399 $1.00—1917. Sig. Elliot and Burke. This error is another faulty imprint of the obverse plate. Fold in the paper caused a diagonal white streak from upper border about two inches from the left corner downward to a point about a half inch above the lower right corner. The back is perfectly imprinted. Strictly very fine. ($4.00)

400 $1.00—1917. Sig. Same as last. This is an oddity for when the obverse imprint was made the upper right corner was folded in a pleated manner which took the inking perfectly but when pulled out flat it leaves a portion of the note blank. The shape of the corner is difficult to describe and would have to be seen to be appreciated. Crisp. Unc. ($5.00)

401 $1.00—1917. Sig. Same as last. Imperfect printing of obverse. The lower part of the left side of the portrait of Washington has a peculiar shaped white spot. Something must have gotten between the note and plate during the printing. V. Fine. ($4.00)

402 $1.00—1917. Sig. Elliot and White. This note has the small red seal and the serial number inverted which brings the seal upside down on the right side of the note and the serial numbers almost obscured being merged in the heavily engraved portions of the design, making the note appear bare at the left side. Pract. Unc. ($15.00)

403 $1.00—1917. Sig. Speelman and White. Another error in printing the obverse, a fold across the lower left corner resulted in a write strip where the paper did not receive the imprint. However, the paper must have been smoothed out before the back was printed because this side shows a perfect imprint. Very fine. ($4.00)

405 $2.00—1917. Sig. Elliot and Burke. Another error in the printing of the serial number. The lower left is B2015621A but the number at the upper right only shows the digits 5621A. Something covered some of the numerals in printing. Bright. Crisp. Unc. ($8.00)

406 $2.00—1917. Sig. Same as last. Imperfect printing on obverse. Irregular white marking lower right center appears as though a piece of string laid on the paper which prevented the ink from being impressed on the note. (Upper right corner clipped). Otherwise a fine specimen. ($6.00)

407 $2.00—1917. Sig. Elliot and Burke. Obverse error which leaves a long white streak across the upper portion from left of about three quarters way across. Nice specimen. Unc. ($8.00)

408 $5.00—1880. Sig. Bruce and Wyman. This was the bottom note and when the large red seal was printed, a large portion of the lower right corner turned up, resulting in the seal being mostly on the back and the margin which was cut off. There is just a faint crescent shaped edge of seal about half inch long visible on the face of the note. Crisp. Unc. ($30.00)

409 $5.00—1907. Sig. Napier and McClung. This is an unusual freak. The left side of the note folded over when printing the serial number resulting in the number being printed on the back, also the ornament. V dollar in red. A rarity indeed. Very fine. ($18.00)

410 $5.00—1907. Sig. Same as last. Just a faint portion of the top of the seal visible. Something obscured the seal when printing. Very fine. ($15.00)

411 $5.00—1907. Sig. Parker and Burke. This is a real error for the small red seal is missing entirely. Not many of these are known. Strictly V. Fine. ($15.00)

412 $5.00—1907. Sig. Teehee and Burke. This error has a peculiar snake-like white streak starting at the lower left of Jackson's portrait up through same, ending in a curve to right down through part of UN of United. Probably caused by a string stuck on the plate. Rare. Very fine. ($15.00)

413 $5.00—1907. Sig. Same as last. Another freak type with a vertical fold in note about one inch from the right end. None of the printing is missing just interrupted by the fold. Pract. Unc. ($15.00)

414 $5.00—1907. Sig. Same as last. This note is excessively rare for it was skipped during the numbering process and is devoid of the seal, also the V ornament and the serial numbers. Not a trace of red ink anywhere. The only specimen in existence. A real oddity. Strictly fine. ($20.00)

415 $5.00—1907. Sig. Elliot and White. A freak, with the lower right corner pleated in a fold so the printing appears perfect, but the corner can be pulled out like a fan and large V shaped blank appears diagonally across the corner. All of these freaks are exceedingly rare and must be seen to be appreciated. Pract. Unc. ($15.00)

416 $5.00—1907. Sig. Speelman and White. Another extremely rare error for the note bears the serial number but the red seal and V ornament is missing. Most unusual. Not many of these known. Fine. ($15.00)

417 $5.00—1907. Sig. Same as last. Rare freak. In fact the only known specimen of its kind. Some obstruction on the plate caused the S of States and part of T to be missing, also the words TO THE are lacking as is also the D in Dollar and part of O. The blank space extends down and covers part of the Dog's Nose. Unique. Very fine. ($15.00)

418 $5.00—1907. Sig. Same as last. This note which has a vertical fold clear across the left end from top to bottom about half an inch from the edge appears as a white streak since the fold is ironed out. Strictly very fine. ($15.00)

419 $10.00—1901. Sig. Same as last. The Buffalo note with a vertical white stripe across the left end about 1 1-4 inch from edge, caused by fold, also another small-like blade of grass about one-quarter to right of first at bottom. Errors on this series are very rare. Pract. Unc. ($25.00)

UNCUT SHEETS OF UNITED STATES CURRENCY

The uncut sheets are complete sheets of four notes each as originally issued by the Bureau of Engraving and Printing. These sheets are intact, none of the notes have ever been severed and the margins are full and complete. These are excessively rare of the early issues. Each sheet is inclosed in a special made cellophane holder, neatly bound at the edges in green, with perforations at right side making them adaptable for ring binders.

421 $5.00—1880. Complete Uncut Sheet. Sig. Lyons and Roberts. Really a show-piece of the greatest rarity. This is the only intact sheet of this entire series that Mr. Grinnell was ever able to secure. Not many were released in this form by the Treasury Department. Beautifully designed notes, the beauty of which is further enhanced by the fact that the sequence conjoined presents a most pleasing example of the engraver's art. Pencil date on reverse margin 11/23/99 indicates this sheet was secured 45 years ago. Sheet number 9196. A rare opportunity to secure an item of this kind. Ex. fine. ($100.00)

422 $5.00—1907. Complete Uncut Sheet. Sig. Elliott and White. Plate 2. Single notes with these signatures are rare, but this item is far more rare as a complete unsevered sheet. This is indeed a magnificent bright, clean imprint on an intact sheet. Just as crisp and new in appearance as the day it came off the press. Here is an opportunity which may never again present itself to secure a sheet of this kind. Perfect. Superb. Unc. ($100.00)

RECONSTRUCTED SHEETS

All of the following lots consist of sheets of four notes which have been reassembled in the original form by careful joining together each of the severed notes from their respective sheets in their proper sequence. This is a difficult task indeed for after the sheets are severed, the notes are usually scattered and it is almoost impossible to reassemble the sets. All of these sheets are formed by neatly joining the notes together at the back with narrow strips of tape. Each sheet is inclosed in a special made cellophane holder, neatly bound at the edges in green with perforations at right side making them adaptable for ring binders.

423 $1.00—1862. Sig. Chittenden and Spinner. Portrait, Salmon P. Chase. These are the first Legal Tenders of small denomination. This sheet bears the letters A.B. Co. at the right end of each note. There is another set with the cut sheets in this collection. Aside from these only two others are known to exist. It was very fortunate that someone laid aside a few of these notes together in their proper numerical order for after the notes were distributed it would have been almost impossible to reassemble these sheets.
